

Heritage Museum Exhibits

July 2008 - October 2008

Gilmer Arts and Heritage Association (GAHA) is proud to offer its latest Heritage Museum exhibit on the War Between the States - titled "A House Divided." The Exhibit runs through October 2008 and is open to the public free of charge. Museum Hours are 9:00 - 4:30 Monday, Wednesday, and Friday through August, and Monday - Friday beginning in September.

Beth Pigott, Chairperson of the Heritage Museum Committee, organized the effort to bring to the museum a collection of artifacts, historical documents, books, pictures, and other items depicting the Civil War. Ms. Pigott said, "What is interesting is that in Gilmer County, a divided house was not uncommon, with family members splitting between the Union and the Confederate armies. The exhibit reflects this, and we very much appreciate Gilmer residents who have loaned us items for this exhibit."

